Smells delicious and made in a jiffy: this banana bread turns (over-)ripe bananas into a tasty delight – for breakfast, as an in-between snack or with a cup of coffee.

Ingredients

- 3 bananas, very ripe
- 80 g unrefined sugar
- ½ tsp salt
- 2 eggs
- 75 ml sunflower oil
- 275 g plain flour
- 2 tsp baking powder
- 50 g dark chocolate, coarsely chopped
- 50 g walnut kernels, coarsely chopped
- 1 banana, halved lengthwise

Preparation

Preheat the cooking space to 160 °C using the hot air humid mode. Put the bananas in a food processor bowl and use the paddle attachment to mash them. Add the sugar and salt and mix until the mixture is smooth. Add the eggs, then pour in the sunflower oil in a slow, thin stream, continuing to mix. Combine the flour and baking powder, add to the banana mixture and mix to form a smooth mixture. Turn the mixture into the lined loaf tin and top with the banana halves. Put the loaf tin on a wire shelf in the preheated cooking space and bake for about 1 hour. Turn the banana bread out of the tin and allow to cool on a wire rack.
